Stunning selection

A photograph of a nursery display featuring several wooden shelves. The shelves are filled with a variety of potted plants. In the foreground, there are several red plastic pots containing different types of grasses and flowering plants. One pot has tall, thin, brown grasses, another has a dense clump of green grass, and a third has a cluster of small white flowers. Above these, on a higher shelf, there are more plants, including some with large, colorful leaves in shades of green, red, and yellow. The background shows a white wall and more plants, suggesting a well-stocked nursery.

Increase your profits with premium accents for mixed containers and gardens.

Choose from 51 varieties in an unsurpassed range of colors, textures, heights and habits – including 20 ColorGrass® selections.
